

THE OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CITY OF BOISE,
STATE OF IDAHO

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, Ignite Boise was established by volunteers in early 2009 for the purpose of advancing big ideas and sparking a blaze of creativity in the City of Boise's business and creative community; and
- WHEREAS, the organizers, presenters, and attendees have combined to create - consistently and without fail - spirited gatherings in the heart of Downtown Boise for intelligent people to share unique perspectives, odd observations, and bold ideas for the community; and
- WHEREAS, it's always refreshing and uplifting to see smart, open-minded people come together to listen to one another; and
- WHEREAS, the unique live presentation format of Ignite Boise brings together a diverse group including the valley's artists, geeks, entrepreneurs, academics, government officials, and others to share their ideas in a fast-paced feeding frenzy of original thinking that entertains, challenges, and inspires; and
- WHEREAS, the volunteer founders and organizers of Ignite Boise staged an impressive debut event in March of '09 and have maintained the momentum, staging five Ignite Boise events over the past 24 months, with the Ignite Boise 6 scheduled for April 2011; and
- WHEREAS, Ignite Boise reflects the truth that Boise is the birthplace of big ideas, the cradle of innovation, and simply the best place to lead a balanced life of meaningful work and inspirational play; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DAVID H. BIETER, Mayor of the City of Boise, Idaho do hereby proclaim Thursday, April 21, 2011 as

IGNITE BOISE 6 DAY

in Boise, Idaho.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand on this the 20th day of April, in the year of our Lord two thousand and eleven.
